

REVELATUM MINIATURA

Guidelines and Entry Form

Revelatum Miniatura is Accident Gallery's (sort of) annual, mobile miniature art, juried exhibition. Artists of all media are encouraged to enter. The following is a brief guide to help increase your chances of getting into the show.

1. 2D artwork (including framing) must have an area of no more than 9" square inches.. Examples include 3"x 3", 2"x 4 1/2", and 1"x 9". Keep in mind ungainly pieces are difficult to hang.
2. 3D artwork (including base) must have a volume of no more than 27" inches, about the amount of material in a Rubik's Cube. In addition the footprint of 3D artwork must be 4"x 4" or smaller.
3. A suitable base for attaching the artwork to the mobile gallery must be installed on each piece. Examples include a 3/8" piece of wood glued to a painting or a sculpture threaded to accommodate a 1/4" bolt.
4. All artwork must be dry and easily handled.
5. Variety is desired. 3"x 3" paintings and 3"x 3"x 3" cubes are discouraged.
6. Artwork may be part of a silent auction and/or have a "buy it now" price. All work must be available for purchase.
7. A $10 entry fee must accompany every entry. This is a juried exhibition, entering does not guarantee getting in. However, making a really tiny amazing piece of art will help.
